

CELEBRATE Thanksgiving SAFELY

The City of Alexandria and the Alexandria Health Department strongly urge residents to choose celebration activities identified as lower risk by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention.

Help keep your family and friends thankful for their health by staying away from others when ill, continuing to wear a mask, maintaining six feet of distance, and washing your hands frequently. If you must travel, get tested for COVID-19 before and after your trip.

LOWER RISK

Have a small dinner with people who live in your household

Have a virtual dinner and share recipes with family and friends

Watch sports, parades, and movies from home

Shop online Black Friday and Cyber Monday

MODERATE RISK

Having a small outdoor dinner with family and friends who live in your community

Visiting pumpkin patches or orchards

Attending small outdoor sports events with safety precautions in place

HIGHER RISK

Shopping in crowded stores

Participating or being a spectator at a crowded sports event

Attending crowded parades

Attending large indoor gatherings with people from outside of your household
